Start with the picture

Children add their own details to the unfinished drawing.

Talk about what is happening before they begin writing.

Use the questions to get started

Read the questions together, or let confident writers work independently.

There is room for a story title, the writer's name and their story.

Choose the writing lines

Pages 2-4 use dotted guides; pages 6-8 use solid lines.

Pages 5 and 9 give children more room to continue their stories.

Three prompts to try

Alien Visitors!, My Robot!, and The Best Field Trip Ever!

The full Volume 1 pack includes 36 prompts in both line styles.
